

Take the Next Step Toward Your Student's Future at OU!

Dear [Perspective Student's Parent],

Thank you for your interest in the University of Oklahoma and for supporting your student as they explore their college options. We know this is an exciting time full of big decisions, and we want you to know that OU is here every step of the way to help your family feel confident and informed.

At OU, your student will become part of a vibrant, spirited community, where traditions like game days are just the beginning. From academics to extracurricular activities, we support our students every step of the way.

Whether it's on the field or in the classroom, OU offers an environment where your student can excel, make lasting friendships, and prepare for a bright future. We invite you to visit our campus, take a tour, and see firsthand what makes our university special.
